

Country: RUSSIA

Name: Violetta Shastina

E-mail: violetta.shastina@gmail.com

Qualification: Intercultural Education, Applied Informatics in Economics

Role in the organization: Project coordinator/Trainer/Facilitator

organization:

Position: Freelance trainer and facilitator

Name: Nadya Skepko

E-mail: nadya.skepko@gmail.com

Qualification: Applied Informatics in Economics and Corporate Systems

Role in the organization: Trainer/Youth worker

organization:

Position: Project Manager in Implementing Corporate Systems

Freelance trainer and facilitator

Organization: Youth Volunteer Movement "Rovesnik Rovesniku" (coeval-to-coeval)

Website: www.vk.com/rovesnikrovesnik

Aim: The key focus is self-development and self-actualization of a person, building harmonious relations with itself and the world around, that helps to form a negative attitude to alcohol, drugs and relevant harmful practices and to prevent these risky behaviors both in one's life and in life of peers.

Main Activities:

- Development of methodical manuals, training programs and information materials
- Workshops
- «Discovery» (personal development training course)
- Trainings of Trainers
- Thematic lessons
- Work with disabled people and with children from hospitals
- Work in orphanages, youth prisons, boarding schools and professional technical colleges,
- Youth actions directed to prevention, children rights and etc.
- International programs

Successful projects:

- Formation of tolerance among youth through the program of harmonization of interethnic and intercultural relations;
- "The future is ours"
- "Be yourself. Allow others to be different!" – Formation of tolerance among youth through the creation of interest and respect for national cultures and values
- "I do care, but do you?" - High-risk behavior prevention through the creation of an environment of sustainability for adolescents and youth
- Drug and alcohol abuse prevention among students